Harry Hoefler Heads Menlo Park C. of C.

Harry Hoefler, Redwood City real estate man, was elected president of the Menlo Park Chamber of Commerce Monday night to fill a vacancy created by Capt. Robert Padley's resignation. Captain Padley has been called away on business and also faces probable recall to active army duty.

A. L. Stolp was named vice president.

The chamber approved a resolution backing the Mission Trails Association campaign to secure federal funds for widening and improving highways adjacent to the many large encampments, military posts.

Music Pupils To Give Show, Concert Friday

Opening a series of three Peninsula concerts, music and dancing pupils will present a Musical and Variety Show in the McKinley School auditorium tonight at 8 p.m.

The program is being sponsored by the Mothers of National Institute of Music and Art Pupils to raise money for travel expenses in taking the young musicians and dancers to the national institute concert in Hollywood Bowl, July 6. Admission will be 25 cents for adults.

Dancing pupils of Dorothy Roberts will take part in the variety show and music will be furnished by an orchestra under the direction of Miss Thelma Taylor.

The second concert will be given in Palo Alto High School on Friday, May 23, and the final one of the series in Mountain View sometime in June, according to Mrs. J. Frank Cuddy, president of the mothers' club. Other officers, from whom tickets may be secured, are Mrs. Helen Hamlin, treasurer, and Mrs. Edith Traynor, secretary.

Seth Cohn Heads Building Employers

Seth Cohn, San Mateo electrical contractor, is the new president of the Peninsula Building Trades Employers Association.

Cohn was elected Monday after Frank Regan of Burlingame, who had held the presidency temporarily, declined the permanent presidency because of his health. Regan accepted the vice presidency.

Other officers elected were Oscar V. Person, San Mateo bricklaying contractor, secretary; Herman T. Holser, San Mateo general contractor, treasurer, and Fred H. Crane, secretary of the San Mateo County General Contractors' Association, assistant secretary. Crane will draft by-laws.

Sanitarium, Auction Plans Approved

San Mateo County today had set the stage for two real estate transactions—one involving purchase of a tuberculosis sanitarium, and the other the sale of 304 tax delinquent lots.

The board of supervisors Tuesday at an adjourned meeting authorized publication of notice of intention to purchase Canyon Sanitarium west of Redwood City for $35,000 and set May 20 as the date for hearing on the proposal.

Also approved was the proposal to put up for public auction 304 tax delinquent lots in the Schwerin subdivision in Visitacion Valley east of the Livestock Pavilion.

Both motions, made by Supervisor John A. Lynch of Burlingame, were passed unanimously by the three attending supervisors, Lynch, Chairman Fred E. Beer and Alvin S. Hatch. Supervisors John W. Poole and Thomas L. Hickey were not present.

FAVORED BY DR. GANS

Setting of the tuberculosis sanitarium purchase hearing brings to a climax the controversy which resulted after the institution was offered for sale by Arnold W. Scheier, operator, and his mother, Libby A. Scheier, the owner.

A report by Dr. C. C. Gans, county health director, was interpreted by the board of supervisors as a recommendation for the purchase, but Hickey held with County Executive Frederick Peterson that any additions to the tuberculosis facilities should be made at the site of Community Hospital.

PETERSON CRITICAL

Peterson later criticized the supervisors for not awaiting Hickey's return from Los Angeles before setting the hearing.

"Why the hurry?" the executive demanded to know.

"Why didn't the board carry out its original intention of having an impartial survey made by health experts from three neighboring counties? Mr. Hickey proposed this move and I should think he would have been extended the courtesy of waiting until his return."

Hickey has been in the South this week attending a soil conservation meeting with County Engineer M. A. Grant.

WALTER ESTATE IS $65,800

Dave L. Walter, former Redwood City real estate and insurance man who died last Dec. 26, left an estate valued at $65,886, according to an inventory and appraisement filed here in superior court. The widow, Mrs. May R. Walter, was named sole heir in Mr. Walter's will.

'Comrade X' Film Here

When Clark Gable tries to dictate fashions to his newly-wedded wife, Hedy Lamarr, the fight begins! The two romance and scrap their way through some of the funniest adventures the screen has yet produced in "Comrade X," bombshell comedy-drama of a foreign correspondent in Russia. The picture opened Thursday at the Redwood Theater with "Border Vigilantes" for a 3-day run.

Knifing Charge Against H. L. Wolfe Dropped

Charges against Hobert L. Wolfe, 24, Redwood City baker accused of assault with a deadly weapon, were dismissed here in Judge E. I. McAuliffe's court when Paul Clark, 32, whom Wolfe allegedly stabbed in a scuffle at the men's home on Standish St. Feb. 26, refused to testify against him. The charges were dismissed on motion of A. H. McGovern, defense attorney. When Wolfe was released, he and Clark left the court room arm in arm.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ELECTRICAL INDUSTRY

How to make sure the house you buy or build has
ADEQUATE WIRING

A house is "underwired" IF—

Lights blink or go dim when a heavy duty appliance is turned on.

Toasters or other heating appliances are slow coming up to proper temperature.

Lamps or clocks or radios must be disconnected in order to use vacuum cleaner or movie projector.

A traffic jam occurs at certain outlets and a wobbly three or four way plug must be used.

Your furniture arrangement is restricted by the location of your plugs for lamps, clocks and radios.

Every year thousands of new homes have wiring systems installed that are just short of being first-class jobs. It seems a pity that this occurs because small additional cost would assure the home builder getting a wiring job that would not bring disappointments in years to come.

Think of the many electrical appliances used in the modern home. Each year two or three additional new appliances are acquired and put into use. Then "traffic jams" occur at convenience outlets, circuits become overloaded and voltage drops so that lamps and appliances do not operate to full efficiency.

Plan each room in your house for adequate wiring. Discuss wiring completely with your architect and contractor. Talk with your electrical contractor or this company. Then plan your home wiring to meet the Red Seal Standard of Certified Adequate Wiring.

The Red Seal Plan is a set of specifications set up by wiring experts of the electrical industry. Remember Adequate Wiring will pay for itself many times over.

Booklet Offers Plan For Defending America

Local sponsors of a booklet containing a streamlined "total defense" plan for every American, indorsed by Gen. John J. Pershing, announced here that the pamphlet is available on newsstands here. The cartoon-illustrated booklet, called "You Can Defend America," is said to be acclaimed by governors and civic leaders as a practical program towards national unity and the solution of industrial strife holding up the national defense effort.

156-Mile Walk Urged

In the words of the once-popular song, "M-m-m, Would You Like to Take a Walk?" Of about 156 miles? Over a 12-day period?

San Francisco's recreation department is proposing such a trek for those who like to walk, viewing lovely scenery as they go.

The department, advocating a "back to the trail" movement to "encourage a new healthier outlook," would establish a series of hiking trails through the scenic country adjacent to San Francisco. Overnight trail lodges or shelters would be strategically placed along the route.

Under consideration and already developed to a practical stage is this trail:

From San Francisco down the Peninsula to King's Mountain Inn through San Mateo County Memorial Park, Santa Cruz Big Trees Park, Olive Springs, and 4H Club Camp in the Santa Cruz Mountains, returning via White's in Santa Cruz Mountains, Priest Rock and Cypress Point near Los Gatos, Crystal Springs near Saratoga, Hidden Villa near Stanford University, and then back to King's Mountain Inn back of Redwood City.

Trail shelters would be on land now used in public service, and recreation department officials said permission to pass through private properties along the route would be granted when the plan is perfected. The shelters would be unpretentious, of rustic design, but comfortable enough for a night's lodging.

Approval of the four counties traversed by the trail will be sought, and service clubs may be asked to proide one or more shelters.

Alaska is more than twice the size of Texas.

Going Ahead With National Defense

Anchor School Prepares Men for Defense Jobs

The Anchor School of Trades, 328 South Claremont St., San Mateo, is playing an important part in the national defense training system to provide skilled workers for national defense jobs.

Composed of four schools—at San Mateo, San Francisco, Stockton, and Santa Rosa—the Anchor School of Trades is considered to have one of the finest training systems available. Through this system, a student leaves the school as a journeyman and receives for his efforts journeyman's wages. It is the only private school which maintains government inspectors who supervise all training procedures. Final tests are given under their supervision.

Testing plates are turned over to Smith, Emery & Co., one of the largest testing laboratories recognized by the navy and shipyards alike. Each student, after passing this test, is issued a certificate by the laboratory. With these qualifications, the trained man's immediate value is known by an employer.

A number of young men from the Peninsula are now employed at high wages on various Bay Area jobs, after having completed a course in the school.

C. Wilkens, the field representative of the school, states that the biggest problem is to have enough men trained by the time the new shipyards in the Bay Area open for construction of ships under the national defense program.

Visitors are welcome during school hours, from 1 to 4 p.m., and from 7 to 10 p.m.

'Buzz' Slingsby, Flier For Britain, Visits Here

Harold G. (Buzz) Slingsby, former Menlo Park photographer and engraver, is back on the Peninsula for a few days, but plans to leave for Canada before the end of the week to resume the flying of planes from Newfoundland to England. This time Slingsby will take U. S. bombers across the Pacific.

A private pilot with 2500 hours in the air, Slingsby, a Los Altos resident, became a flier in the Air Transport Auxiliary after signing up last September with Flyer Clyde Pangborn in Oakland. He gets $150 a week for his dangerous work. He began flying in 1924 when only 15 years of age.

A New Recipe Given For Graham Crackers

Honey Maid Graham Crackers —those golden rich squares are so easy to use. Just roll them into crumbs—no sifting of flour to take up your time and make a mess to clean.

As to actual cooking—it's really down to a minimum when you serve Honey Maid desserts. They are perfect for "refrigerator baking." Even when some cooking is involved, it's so much less than when you use flour. These rich graham crackers are thoroughly baked when they reach your grocer's shelf.

These advantages plus the rich honey flavor of Honey Maids and their time-proven wholesomeness should be reasons enough to try these recipes. Once you've tried them, you'll have only one reason for repeating them — they're so good!

PINEAPPLE REFRIGERATOR CAKE (Refreshing)

- 3 egg yolks
- Dash of salt
- ½ cup sugar
- 1 9-ounce can crushed pineapple, drained
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 3 egg whites
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 cup heavy cream, whipped
- 2 cups Honey Maid graham cracker crumbs

Beat egg yolks, salt, and ½ cup sugar; add pineapple syrup and lemon juice. Cook over hot, not boiling water until mixture coats spoon, stirring constantly. Add pineapple; cool. Make meringue of egg whites and 2 tablespoons sugar. Fold in whipped cream and custard. Coat sides of oiled refrigerator tray with wafer crumbs. Spread half the remaining crumbs over bottom. Pour in custard mixture. Cover with remaining crumbs. Freeze firm, about 3 to 4 hours. Serves 6 to 8.

The Polynesians averaged six feet, six inches in height.

R. C. Youths Save Trio From Drowning in Ocean

Several Redwood City youths spending the afternoon on the beach at Santa Cruz were instrumental Sunday in possibly saving three people from drowning in the surf.

The group of youths, Sequoia High School students and graduates, were enjoying a game of baseball on the beach at Rio Del Mar following a swim when they heard shouts of three swimmers who had gone beyond the breakers.

The young men ran to a nearby boathouse, where they secured ropes and life preservers. Jack Galvin, 19, a San Jose State College student; Frank Barreto, 20, an employe of the Al Andersen Floor Co., and Cecil Dombalian, 18, Sequoia student, swam out to the struggling trio while other members of the party stayed on the beach, holding to ropes attached to the Redwood City youths. In this group were Phil and Ted Nell, Emmett Murphy and Bob Andersen.

When the Santa Cruz swimmers, who were nearly exhausted, had been given the life preservers, the boys on the beach pulled them in.

One of the men collapsed upon reaching safety; another man was apparently all right, and the third member of the group, a woman, recovered from exhaustion a short time later. Names of the trio were not learned.

R. C. Student at Berkeley Wins High Medical Honor

A gold-headed cane, emblematic of outstanding achievement as a medical student, today rests in its velvet-lined case at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry Crede', 176 Duane St., Redwood City.

Crede', 25, was awarded the cane Monday as the University of California medical school senior with "the most outstanding qualities of a true physician." He was selected for the medical school's highest honor from a class of 60.

The cane was presented in the Toland Amphitheater of the University Hospital. Not until last night did Crede' know he had been chosen as the most deserving of the graduating medical students, selected in a secret ballot by fellow students and faculty members. Dr. William J. Kerr, professor of medicine, made the announcement.

Presentation of the traditional cane to the outstanding medical school student each year is a custom which originated in England several centuries ago. The practice was revived three years ago by University of California. The cane itself is a beautiful thing, with Crede"s name inscribed on the gold head. A scroll accompanies it, describing the origin of the cane tradition.

Runners-up to Crede' for medical school honors were Paul K. Yamauchi, 25, of Berkeley, and Leonard W. Charvet, 26, of Los Angeles.

Crede"s father is Dr. William H. Crede' of San Fernando, attached to the veterans' hospital in that city. Young Crede' has lived in Redwood City two years. His wife, Margaret Crede', is assistant librarian at the city library.

Only a few weeks ago Crede' won the $150 G. K. Woodward Prize for work in internal medicine. Now he will enter San Francisco Hospital for a year's internship.

Premier Is Slated By S. F. Opera Ballet

SAN FRANCISCO — The San Francisco Opera Ballet will give the American premiere of a modern dance satire as a feature of one of two performances in War Memorial Opera House Thursday and Saturday nights, Apr. 24 and 26.

The new number, entitled "And Now the Brides," is the work of Willam Christensen, noted artistic director of the ballet, with score by Fritz Berens, conductor and composer, who will direct the Symphony Orchestra both nights.

For its first program the ballet will offer "Swan Lake" with music by Tschaikowsky. The San Francisco Opera Ballet is the only dance organization ever to present this number in its entirety.

For the second performance, in addition to "And Now the Brides," the company will offer "Coppelia" in three acts with music by Delibes. This is a restoration of the original "Doll Ballet," created in 1870 and noted for its lavish costumes.

Tickets are on sale at Sherman Clay & Co.
